R4LA IMPRESSUM

R4LA is affiliated with the World Federation of Independent Scouts (WFIS) as a full member chapter of the International Scout Fellowship (ISF). It is a voluntary and non-political organization. R4LA was founded in 2020 by Ken Pataky, Chief Rover Scout, a former Rover Scout/Knight of the former Baden Powell Service Association in the USA. R4LA is guided by a Roundtable which meets virtually every quarter and includes the Chief Rover Scout and currently four R4LA Commissioners: for Program (Neil McNeill), Training (Peggy Scott), Wellness (Tie Pataky) and Jamaican Rovers (Oneil Howell). The organization collects no dues or fees, provides all services free of cost, and receives no monies from any other organization. R4LA is designed to freely support the establishment of independent Rovering for Life worldwide. R4LA does not have a physical office but rather maintains its online presence currently at <http://www.rovering4life.org>, and its Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/rovering4life> and Facebook group at <http://www.facebook.com/groups/rovering4life>, for members to interact online internationally.

ARTICLE 1 - It shall be the policy of R4LA to abide by all of its own Bylaws and the Constitution of ISF.

ARTICLE 2 - The Bylaws of R4LA may be amended, added to or deleted by its Round Table. If the Bylaws are amended, the change will be published to all members via the R4LA Library.

ARTICLE 3 – The minimum Round Table membership shall be the Chief Rover Scout and Commissioners for Program, Training, Wellness, and Jamaican Rovers.

ARTICLE 4 – The term of office for Round Table members is indefinite, unless they choose to resign. A replacement volunteer Commissioner will be culled from current membership at that time.

ARTICLE 5 - Upon consideration of joining the Deep River Rovers and thereby R4LA, or upon any other potential member approaching R4LA for membership, each prospective member shall be asked to read and agree to the Bylaws, the Scout Promise & Law.

ARTICLE 6 – R4LA business will be conducted under the principles outlined in Robert's Rules of Order. Voting on all issues will be by simple majority, with the exception of changes or amendment to the Bylaws as described in Part I, Article 2.

PART II -- MEMBERSHIP

ARTICLE 1 -- Membership in R4LA and ISF is automatic and assumed for any adult member who joins an established R4LA Crew or is approved to form their own Crew. No prospective member shall be disqualified because of race, color, creed, gender, sexual, religious, or political orientation, or Scouting background. Adult members of all ages who are passionate about Rovering are also invited from all over the world, even if they have no formal background in Scouting.

ARTICLE 2 -- R4LA, following the Constitution of ISF, is open to:

- A. former members of WFIS,
- B. to adults who, because of work, cannot commit to the Rover Section of a traditional Scouting Group (as Scouters working with youth),
- C. to adults who did not get the opportunity to be Scouts at an early age, and
- D. to adults who wish to contribute to independent Scouting, regardless of their Scouting backgrounds.

PART III – RESOURCES PROVIDED

ARTICLE 1 – Free training materials are available for those who want to learn the history of Rovering, the status of Rovering worldwide, the purposes of Rovering, how to learn and teach Scoutcraft, and how to develop an independent Rover Crew, including an advancement / progression program.

ARTICLE 2 – A free online forum is provided to communicate about these ideas, make friendships, and receive support.

PART IV – MEETINGS

ARTICLE 1 – R4LA planning / evaluation meetings will be held quarterly, to include virtual online meetings.

ARTICLE 2 – All Commissioners and Crew RSLs are invited to attend these meetings.

ARTICLE 3 – Meetings will include a discussion of the current state of Rovering worldwide, needs for growth and change in R4LA to adapt to the needs of independent Rovering, and any need to revisit the Bylaws, at which time they may be changed and republished.

PART V – FINANCES

ARTICLE 1 – Per the example set by ISF, there are no membership dues. Further, there are currently no monies received from outside organizations.

ARTICLE 2 – If in the future, R4LA decides to receive donation monies or participate in any kind of fundraisers for the purpose of supporting independent Scouting, the Chief Rover Scout will manage said monies. Monies earned will not be for the benefit of Commissioners or for the profit of any person, but only for the Scouting needs of members and independent Scouting organizations in need.

ARTICLE 3 – Further, R4LA may from time to time encourage voluntary donations from members directly to the ISF Brotherhood Fund via their website, to assist WFIS members with disaster relief, emergency funds for forming new associations, as well as training aids and materials for same.

PART VI – UNIFORM

ARTICLE 1 – Members of R4LA will wear a traditional Scouting uniform appropriate to their local Crew and this Association, with the R4LA association strip above the right pocket and the yellow ISF badge centered on their right chest pocket. They may also wear an optional ISF necker or their own Crew necker. Those who are also members of a WFIS association directly serving youth Scouts may also wear the green WFIS badge on their left sleeve, centered between their shoulder and elbow.

ARTICLE 2 – Members who are also Rovers, will also wear badges, epaulets, and shoulder knots appropriate to their Crew and this Association, position, and awards achieved.

ARTICLE 3 – Rovers should generally not wear their Rover uniforms where they are not appropriate; for example, in situations where they are representing their own individual views and not those of the their Crew or Association (such as at political events, rallies, protests, community religious events that are political in nature or where the Rover is also the presider/worship leader, etc.). No Rover should ever wear a uniform to these events that would identify or imply support from either their Crew or this Association. If Rovers are interviewed by the press or arrested due to participation in events such as these, they are not authorized to speak on behalf of this Association.

ARTICLE 3 – Generally, when Rovers are attending youth Scouting events as registered, vetted, bona fide members of those youth Scouting organizations, they should wear the uniform appropriate to those associations and not their R4LA Rover Scout uniforms.

PART VII – ACTIVITIES

ARTICLE 1 – Regular members are normally Rover Scouts, either Scouting as Lone Rovers or with a Crew. As Rovers, they will perform activities that typical Rovers do (personal development, outdoor activities, Scoutcraft, meetings, service projects, etc.), while respecting these Bylaws, their Crew Bylaws, and in the spirit of ISF and WFIS, supporting independent Scouting worldwide.

ARTICLE 2 – Commissioners are also normally Rovers, but in addition have the duties of maintaining the web presence, updating the Bylaws periodically, meeting at least quarterly with each other, communicating with ISF and WFIS, distributing ISF patches and neckers when appropriate, guiding their own Rover Crews, organizing & sponsoring R4LA Moots or attendance at other Rover Moots, and providing support to other R4LA members as needed, typically online.

ARTICLE 3 – In addition to typical Rovering activities, members of R4LA/ISF-sponsored Crews may conduct any of the following activities in support of worldwide independent Scouting:

- A. Assistance to adults at Moots, Trainings, and Camps for WFIS Associations or Groups in various capacities (organization, communication, program delivery, logistics, etc.) at every level.

When appropriate, they will complete such procedures and training before having direct contact with youth Scouts.
